

Statutes of the Venezuelan Federation of Watersports

STATUTE OF THE VENEZUELAN FEDERATION OF AQUATIC SPORTS

TITLE I OF THE DENOMINATION, CONTITUTION, PURPOSES AND ADDRESS CHAPTER I OF THE DENOMINATION AND CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE 1.- The Venezuelan Federation of Aquatic Sports , from here on hereinafter, called FEVEDA , is a Social Organization promoting the sport of private law, whose legal nature is that of a Civil Association, with personality legal, own and non-profit patrimony, which is registered in the National Registry of the INSTITUTO NACIONAL DE DEPORTES (IND), and affiliated with the VENEZUELAN OLYMPIC COMMITTEE (COV), to the INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF AMATEUR SWIMMING (FINA), to the AMATEUR UNION OF SWIMMING OF THE AMERICAS (UANA), to the SOUTH AMERICAN SWIMMING CONFEDERATION (CONSANAT), the LATIN SWIMMING CONFEDERATION (COLAN), as well as other regional and continental organizations to which you could affiliate within democratic principles, equality and competitiveness.

ARTICLE 2: FEVEDA is made up of the State Associations, one for each federal entity, affiliated r to be affiliated, existing in the territory of the Republic Bolivariana de Venezuela, after acceptance of the federative pact and once verified who have complied with the set of rules established in the federative Statutes in concordance with the Organic Law of sport, Physical Activity and Physical Education and its regulations. It was created in order to plan, schedule, organize, direct, coordinate, control and supervise water sports activities in all their forms, understanding within it to Swimming, Water Polo, Synchronized Swimming, Ornamental Jumps, Master Swimming and Open Water, consequently being the highest organism rector of these disciplines in Venezuela.

ARTICLE 3. - FEVEDA, as well as its administrators, will remain oblivious to all political, religious and general interference in any matter or matter that maintains related to sport, except for philanthropic and cultural activities. His existence is based on the right that everyone has to practice water sports such as sport of your choice, without discrimination of age, sex or social condition, with the only limitations that in the order of health protection, establish the laws, regulations and resolutions.

ARTICLE 4: The FEVEDA Organization is based on the principles of democracy, autonomy, participation, self-management, decentralization, solidarity, equality, sovereignty, national identity, justice, honesty, freedom, and respect for human rights, loyalty to the country, gender equality, solidarity, and others principles established in the law

CHAPTER II OF THE PURPOSES AND THE DOMICILE

ARTICLE 5. - The purposes for which FEVEDA was incorporated are the following:

1. Organize, direct, coordinate, plan, schedule, promote, control and supervise the competitions of the aquatic sports that take place in the country.
2. Maintain the nexus or link with similar sports entities of others countries and international organizations to which it is affiliated.
3. Coordinate, authorize, control and supervise the activities of the Associations affiliates, as well as those of their directors.
4. Affiliate within Associations that meet the requirements established in these Statutes and their regulations, monitoring their performance, in accordance with the provisions dictated in the Organic Law of Sports, Physical Activity and Education Sport Physics and its regulations.
5. Authorize the realization and grant validity to the different national championships, zonal and regional.
6. Grant as sole authority, the titles and awards that are disputed in sports corresponding to the aforementioned events, implementing the conditions technical and economic that it deems necessary, relative to the development and success of events.
7. Authorize, when applicable, any advertising promotion via static or dynamics, including posters, souvenirs and in general all commercial manifestations to be done in connection with water sports events held in the country.
8. Any other that corresponds to the spirit and scope of the Sports Law, its Regulations and the statutes and Regulations of FEVEDA.

ARTICLE 6. - FEVEDA will be domiciled in the city of Caracas and may hold Meetings and assemblies anywhere in the Republic, when it deems it so its Board of Directors.

TITLE II OF THE MANAGEMENT BODIES CHAPTER I OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

ARTICLE 7.- FEVEDA's organizational structure is made up of:

1. THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
2. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
3. THE COUNCIL OF HONOR
4. THE CONTROLLING BOARD

ARTICLE 8.- The General Assembly is the highest authority of FEVEDA , and therefore the supreme body of the same. Its agreements and resolutions are mandatory compliance by affiliated entities and individuals, as well as for those who do not show this last quality and carry out activities that directly or Indirectly is related to national and international programs, for Obligation with the rules contained in the Organic Law of Sport, Physical Activity and Physical Education or the Statutes of the Federation

ARTICLE 9 : The General Assembly will be constituted as follows:

- a) .- One (1) or one (1) delegate from each of the affiliated associations.
- b) .- One (1) or one (1) delegate per state, elected or democratically elected from the within the State Athletes Commission, defined in article 6 numeral 1 of the law, affiliated to FEVEDA, who have participated for the State Selection, in the last two (2) Olympic cycles, active and duly constituted in accordance with the established in the Organic Law of Sport, Physical Activity and Physical Education and its Regulations
- .c) .- One (1) or one (1) delegate per state, elected or democratically elected from the within the State Commission of Trainers affiliated to FEVEDA and duly constituted in accordance with the provisions of the Organic Sports Law, Physical Activity and Physical Education and its Regulations.
- d) .- One (1) or one (1) delegate per state, elected or democratically elected from the within the State Commission of Judges and Judges, duly affiliated to FEVEDA and duly constituted in accordance with the provisions of the law and its regulations.

ARTICLE 10.- The General Assemblies will be classified into:

1. Ordinary; b) Extraordinary.

The Ordinary Assemblies will meet at least one (1) time a year at the headquarters that determined by the Board of Directors.

The Extraordinary Assemblies will be called by: 1. The President of the Board of Directors 2. Half plus one (51%) of the main members of the Board of Directors 3. A number of delegates representing at least half plus one (51%) of the members of the Assembly, who must have the qualities to do so of in accordance with the provisions of these Statutes.

ARTICLE 11.- The calls for the Ordinary General Assemblies, with exception to the one referring to electoral processes, they must be made by communication written to the delegates, twenty (20) days prior to the date of their realization. In said call, the following will be stated: the agenda, date, place and time, as well as the authorities that make the call. The calls for the Extraordinary Assemblies will be at least ten (10) days in advance of the celebration, unless there is a state of urgency and proven need, for which, the indicated term may be omitted and will be governed by the requirements established in this Chapter, excluding various points or matters that are understood as such.

SOLE PARAGRAPH: In the year that corresponds to the election of the authorities of FEVEDA, the call will be made with fifteen (15) business days, at least, of anticipation of the date set for the election, by means of personal notification addressed to delegates, by certified mail with notice of receipt, via mail electronic or fax or by publishing a poster in a newspaper of circulation national. The Management Report and the Balance of Accounts of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 12.- General Assemblies are considered validly constituted with the attendance of half plus one of the delegates. If at the appointed time to give beginning of the Assembly, the statutory quorum did not exist for the validity of its constitution, said Assembly will be considered automatically called for within of the following thirty (30) minutes, being able to validly begin their session's atlas of the expiration of the term previously set with the number of delegates present. The decisions of the Assembly will be valid when approved by a simple majority of the attending members. The Assemblies will be chaired by the President of FEVEDA and in his absence, the Director chosen by the President will do sowing the deliberations of the Assembly, the members of the Board of Directors, only they will have the right to speak. In the event of a tie in the Assembly's deliberations and after a second vote without obtaining results, exceptionally the President of FEVEDA or whoever by delegation takes his place, may decide making use of his casting vote but if he refuses to do so, the proposal is will consider denied. The aforementioned power will not be applied in the Assembly whose points to be discussed are governed by the election of authorities and the approval or disapproval of the Management Report and the Balance Sheet.

ARTICLE 13.- The credentials of the Delegates of the Associations to the Assembly, must be signed by the President and the Secretary General of the Respective association endorsed with its seal. They will not be able to credit delegates to the assembly, Associations: with expired period, authorities provisional, those that do not have their registration certificate in the National Registry of Sports, Physical Activity and Physical Education, who are subject to sanction disciplinary nor the Boys, Girls and Adolescents. In the case of the delegates of the athletes, coaches or trainers and judges the credentials must be signed by the President and Secretary-general of the respective State Commission.

ARTICLE 14.- Corresponds to the Ordinary General Assembly:1. Elect the members of the Board of Directors, the Council of Honor and the Council Controller every four (4) years.2. Approve or disapprove the Management Report and the Balance of Accounts to be presented by the Board of Directors.3. Resolve on the acts of disposition of the property of the Federation.4. Sanction the Statute and Regulations of FEVEDA, for which the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of the delegates present legitimately accredited.5. Authorize or not the purchase or sale of real estate and resolve all matters that the Board of Directors submit for consideration.

ARTICLE 15.- Corresponds to the Extraordinary General Assembly:1. Validate the decision of the Board of Directors to grant the headquarters of powers international events to be held in our country, once the international organization corresponding authority has authorized said competence, without prejudice to the conferred on the Board of the National Institute of Sports.1. Resolve all those matters that are raised for its consideration by of the Board of Directors.

CHAPTER II OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ARTICLE 16.- The Board of Directors is the administrative and executive body of FEVEDA and it will be made up of 11 main members; One (1) President; One (1) Director-general; One (1) Director of Administration, One (1) Director of Transfer; A Director of Statistics; One (1) Director of Swimming, One (1) Director of Water Polo, one (1) Synchronized Swimming Director, One (1) Director of Ornamental Diving, One (1) Master's Director and One (1) Director of Open Water and one (1) alternate for each one of them. Likewise, the National Athletes Commission will designate one (1) representative elected from among its members, who will have the right to speak and vote in taking decisions in the Board of Directors of the Federation. The Athletes representative Assets will not be considered part of the Board of Directors as well as Boys, Girls and Teenagers. The members of the Board of Directors will not receive any salary for their work but they will may receive meeting attendance allowances, travel expenses, out-of-pocket expenses, and food, lodging and travel expenses.

ARTICLE 17: To be a member of the Board of Directors of FEVEDA they must meet the following requirements: 1. Be a citizen of Venezuelan nationality by birth. 2. Of legal age. 3. Not be subject to sports disciplinary sanctions by the body's competent authorities of FEVEDA or of any other mono sport Federation or sports hall. 4. Not be subject to interdiction. 5. Must have sports experience in any sports specialty aquatic with a minimum of four (4) years accumulated to the date of the election. 6. Not being a member of the FEVEDA Electoral Commission. 7. Not being a member of the Board of Directors of the National Sports Institute, unless it is in representation of the Federations before that body. 8. Not be a public official, who provide services in the National Institute of Sports in management positions. 9. economic or financial made by public sector entities, to the satisfaction of the respective That has not integrated Boards of Directors in sports entities that do not have submitted to the National Institute of Sports, the Management Reports and Rendering of Accounts corresponding to the civil and fiscal years within the five (5) years prior to the election, or have pending Account Renderings of its Management regarding contributions of an organism nature. 1. Not be an active athlete, except for Master Athletes, according to the Regulations of the International Swimming Federation or being a Boy, Girl or Adolescent. 2. Have made the sworn statement of their assets before the bodies competent and keep it updated. The same obligation extends to members of the Honor Council, the Comptroller Council and the person in charge of Financial Management and Administrative. 3. Have registered in the national registry of sport, physical activity and physical education tithe social organization promoting the sport where he is in charge of the Board of Directors and at the Boards of Directors of other organizations in the period prior to the date of its choice.

ARTICLE 18.- The election of the Members of the Board of Directors of FEVEDA shall be will be carried out in accordance with the principles established in articles 2 and 50 of the Sport, Physical Activity and Physical Education and its Partial Regulation No. 1, respectively, subject to the electoral system adopted in this Statute and the Electoral Regulations issued by the respective commission elected in assembly, in forces of the date of said election. The Members of the Board of Directors will last four (4) years in the exercise of their functions and may be reelected. The choice will be made in the extraordinary General Assembly, convened for this purpose and the vote must be direct, secret, highly personal and non-delegable and will be done through the Voting System List or by any of the systems established in article 16 of the Organic Law Electoral Processes.

ARTICLE 19. - The Board of Directors will hold ordinary sessions once a month and in extraordinary way whenever it is deemed convenient. The quorum for these meetings will be at least half plus one of the main members and their decisions will be valid with the favorable vote of half plus one of the directors assistants. The unexcused absences of the main members of the Board of Directors to three (3) consecutive ordinary sessions or to five (5) non-consecutive annual sessions, it will automatically be considered an irrevocable resignation to the position. The separation resignation of a position of up to three (3) members in the Board of Directors, will be resolved for this and the new appointment or restructuring will be informed in the following general Assembly.

ARTICLE 20. - The powers of the Board of Directors are:

1. Ensure the development and proper functioning of FEVEDA, as well as act with strict adherence to these Statutes, its Regulations and other constitutive norms of the current legal order.
2. Exercise the international representation of Venezuela in relation to the sport of indicated water sports and their specialties, as the only body recognized by FINA.
3. Organize, coordinate, direct, control and supervise, in accordance with the provisions in the FINA Statutes, all national and international competitions of the specialties that are celebrated in the country.
4. Send your work program, Management Report and Balance of Accounts to the National Institute of Sports.
5. To process before the Venezuelan Olympic Committee the authorization provided for the participation of athletes in competitions to be held abroad, without prejudice of the authorization to be granted by FEVEDA when it comes to the participation of athletes outside or within the territory of the Republic for international competitions, requested by the affiliated Associations.
6. Manage for Venezuela, with the authorization of the National Institute of Sports, the headquarters of international competitions as well as obtain from this organization the authorization for the official representation of Venezuela in said competitions.
7. Appoint, when applicable, the members of the national teams
8. Appoint the members of the National Committees of each specialty, Technical and Arbitration Commissions, Medical Commission and any other that is necessary for the fulfillment of its mission and whose positions will be ad-honored
9. Validate at the national level, the new or renewed signing of all competitors, processed in accordance with the provisions of the respective Regulations for each specialty.
10. Standardize the national records of the specialties.
11. Send to the pertinent International Organizations, the necessary precautions to the homologation of the international records to which there is place.
12. Submit to the Associations the officially approved national records and periodically updated.
13. Organize and keep the registry of Associations, leagues and affiliated clubs, with updating of its directives, the registry of national competencies in which intervene the national team and record national and international records duly updated.

14. Determine the date for the celebration of the Ordinary General Assembly, within of the term established by these Statutes and order its convocation.

15. Summon, in response to requests received, an Extraordinary General Assembly within the terms and requirements established in these Statutes.

16. Promote the creation of Associations where there are none and decide on the Affiliation applications from State Associations when they have fulfilled with the obligations established in the law and its regulations and the Statutes federative as well as the national commissions of athletes, coaches and judges, support committees in specialized areas among others. In case of refusals of affiliation of Associations, national commissions and other groups the Board FEVEDA's directive must make a written statement stating the causes fully justified based on the law and its regulations and the bylaws of the entity.

17. Prepare the National Competition Calendar and annually promulgate the conditions that will govern it.

18. Approve or disapprove the application for membership of new Associations within the fifteen (15) business days following the receipt of each request, as long as comply with the points established in the law and its regulations and the Statutes federative.

19. Notify the National Sports Institute of any statutory change within the fifteen (15) business days following the approval of said reform and order its publication in the Official Gazette of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela.

20. Prepare the annual Budget by Specialty project.

21. Present annually before the Ordinary General Assembly, the Management Report, the Balance of Accounts and the physical Inventory of your assets.

22. Appoint or remove delegates, technicians, advisers and other necessary personnel for the full fulfillment of its activities.

23. Carry out, if necessary, the rotation of the Directors of the Specialties.

24. Register FEVEDA in the National Registry of Sport, Physical Activity and Physical Education and keep it updated.

25. All those attributions not attributed to other bodies that are not provided in these Statutes and their Regulations.

ARTICLE 21.- The Powers and duties of the President are:1. Exercise the judicial or extrajudicial representation of FEVEDA and in all acts in that it intervenes, being able to grant or revoke power of attorney (s) to exercise the legal representation of the Federation in the terms indicated in the respective mandate.2. Preside over the Assemblies and meetings of the Board of Directors3. Sign together with the Director of Administration, the payment orders or other documents that economically commit FEVEDA, being able to open or close accounts in the Banking Institutions indicated by the Board of Directors

1. Decide with their casting vote, after a second vote without obtaining results, cases of tie in matters of the competence of the Board of Directors and of the Ordinary or Extraordinary General Assemblies.

2. Resolve duly verified cases of urgency, with the obligation to give account or justification to the Board of Directors in the immediately following session.

3. To sign jointly with the General Director, the credentials of the affiliates and also sign communications with said Director or with the person he designates.

4. The other attributions and duties that correspond to it in accordance with this Statute and its Regulations.

ARTICLE 22. - The powers of the General Director are:

1. Prepare the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors and the Assemblies, ensuring that those attending them can sign immediately at the end such acts.
2. Sign all the correspondence emanating from the Federation, together with the President or with the Director of the Specialty, if applicable
3. Gather all the information necessary for the preparation of the Management Report, including all competitive operating activity of FEVEDA
4. Present in the month of May of each year, the general planning to present before the Board of Directors.
5. Carry out the necessary steps to subscribe the Federation to entities and / or national or foreign specialized magazines, as well as planning, organizing and directing FEVEDA publications and its Technical Library.
6. Participate in all those activities in which due to the nature of their functions you must give your contest.

ARTICLE 23.- The powers of the Director of Administration are:1. Direct together with the President and the Directors of each Specialty, all what is related to obtaining, forecasting and executing funds from "FEVEDA"2. Plan, schedule, direct, control and supervise the accounting function, reviewing and approving the presentation of the balance sheet and its result together with the President, before the Ordinary General Assembly.3. Make and order bank deposits and make payments, with prior authorization of the president.4. Prepare FEVEDA's annual budget, which must be submitted to the Board of Directors in the month of May of each year.5. Provide their assistance in those activities agreed by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 24.- The following are attributions of the Transfer Director:

1. Validate and supervise at the national level, the new or renewed signing of everything competitor belonging to leagues or clubs, requested in accordance with the provisions in the respective Regulation of each specialty.
2. Validate at the national level, the affiliation of the body or organization of coaches, technical staff and leaders.
3. Collect and supply the necessary information for the preparation of the Management, as well as the preparation of the annual plan that must be presented to the Board Directive in the month of May of each year.4. Provide their assistance in those activities agreed by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 25.- The powers of the Director of Statistics are:

1. Organize and keep the record of Associations, Leagues and Clubs affiliated with updating of its directives, registration of national and international competences in which the National Team, Associations, Leagues or Clubs participate authorized by FEVEDA , also keeping the updated record of records National and international.
2. Direct the FEVEDA Newsletter, in which everything related to registries, affiliations and records.

3. Collect and supply the necessary information for the preparation of the Management, as well as the preparation of the annual Plan of its work area that must present to the Board of Directors in June of each year.
4. Provide their assistance in those activities in which it is required by the Board Directive.

ARTICLE 26. - The following are attributions and duties of the Directors of Specialties:

1. Direct the assigned Specialty, together with the National Committee of the itself, the Technical and Arbitration Commission, having to present a monthly account to the Board of Directors of its performance.
2. Carry out, together with the Director of Administration, the necessary steps to obtain and provide funds, as well as the supply of various equipment and implements of their specialty.
3. Sign together with the President or the General Director, all correspondence relative to your specialty.
4. Gather and supply the necessary information on the specialty to carry out of the Management Report, as well as the preparation of the Budget, Calendar, General Conditions, Technical and Arbitration Regulations, which must be presented to the Board of Directors in the month of May of each year.
5. Present the Management Report to the General Assembly.
6. Provide their assistance in all those activities in which it is required by the Board Directive.

ARTICLE 27. - The powers of the Alternate Members are: Each member of the Board of Directors will have an alternate who will cover the absences temporary and absolute of each one of them, except the President. Alternates they will be summoned to ordinary or extraordinary meetings and to assemblies only if it is requested by express mandate of the Board of Directors. They will be entitled only to voice in case of being present in the deliberations and they will be able to fulfill any function appointed by the members of the Board of Directors and the FEVEDA assembly.

ARTICLE 28: National coaches appointed by the Board of Directors will be part of the National Technical Commission with a minimum of three (3) members and shall cooperate in all aspects related to the preparation of the competition calendar, Olympic cycle planning, branding minimums, athletes will apply for national selections and preselection's always delivering a written report of their actions. Likewise, the Board of Directors will designate the National Arbitration Commission to organize, direct and control technical personnel at the national level.

CHAPTER III OF THE COUNCIL OF HONOR

ARTICLE 29. - The General Assembly of FEVEDA, at the time of the appointment of the Board of Directors, will elect, in a separate act, a Council of Honor composed of five (5) main members and an alternate for each of them, ensuring that one of them is a lawyer of recognized suitability and moral solvency, which will last four (4) years in office. The members of the Council of Honor must be:

1. Venezuelans

2. of legal age
3. Be in full use of civil and political rights
4. Not be subject to disciplinary sanctions by FEVEDA or any of its affiliated entities or any other mono sports or poly entities sports
5. Have developed outstanding work in Venezuelan sport or in exercise of the legal profession, if it were the aspiration of a professional specialty.
6. Not having a marital, adoption or kinship bond within the fourth degree of consanguinity or second of affinity, both inclusive with other members of postulated lists or directors of the entity in exercise of functions provided for the members of the board of directors and council of honor.
7. Not be an active athlete, with the exception of Master Athletes, according to the Regulations of the International Swimming Federation.

ARTICLE 30. - The Council of Honor, is the FEVEDA body that exercises the power disciplinary and consequently knows and decides on the commission of infractions constitutive of sports fouls contemplated in these Statutes and their regulations as well as the violation of the Organic Law of Sport, Physical Activity and Education Physics and its regulations and those rules of Public Order contained in the texts of Venezuelan legislation. Likewise, the Council of Honor will instruct and will substantiate the elevated causes, either at the request of the interested party or ex officio. They are subject to these powers:

1. - The athletes
2. - The coaches and the trainers
3. - Parents and Representatives of athletes.
3. - The judges or technical staff.
4. - The affiliated leaders of any of the affiliated associative bodies
5. - The clubs, athletes and professional referees, in accordance with article 71 of the Organic Law of Sport, Physical Activity and Physical Education.

ARTICLE 31. - The Honor Council will hear all sanctions on appeal imposed by the Honor Councils of all Associations and their decision will be definitive. The term to appeal the decision of the Honor Council will be five (5) business days from the date of notification of the respective sanction. Board of Directors, through a Commission that will appoint, instruct the respective file and must send it to the Honor Council within five (5) days consecutive following, once the proceedings have concluded. The Council of Honor It will be resolved within thirty (30) business days following receipt of the file.

ARTICLE 32: FEVEDA recognizes the Sports Justice Commission provided for in the Article 77 of the law as the organ of the associative sports movement to know of elevation of the decisions of its Council of Honor. They may appeal to the Commission of Sports Justice members who have been sanctioned for serious offenses or very serious. Likewise, the Sports Justice Commission may arbitrate in conflicts arising between the entity and any of its affiliates in controversies raised. Their decisions may be appealable before the bodies of the contentious jurisdiction administrative compliance provided by law.

CHAPTER IV OF THE CONTROLLING COUNCIL

ARTICLE 33: The Comptroller Council is the body responsible for monitoring, controlling, supervise and suggest corrective measures in the management of the Board of Directors of FEVEDA.

They may jointly with the president and the director of administration of the entity organize periodic meetings to evaluate the financial statements being able to suggest adequate accounting procedures for a healthy management. They must sign the financial statements of Feveda for the approval of the assembly with a minimum of three (3) of its members.

ARTICLE 34: FEVEDA's Comptroller Council will be made up of five (5) main members of which one of them must be an active athlete who will have right to voice and vote in decision-making. Each principal member shall have an alternate. The members of the Controlling Council will be elected in the same assembly That the members of the Board of Directors and the council of honor will be elected in act separated and will last four (4) years in their functions.

ARTICLE 35. - To be elected a member of the Comptroller Council, the following requirements:

1. Be Venezuelan
2. of legal age
3. Be an active member of water sports in his capacity as a leader, competitor, parent or representative of active athletes
4. Be nominated by an Association, affiliated and solvent to FEVEDA
5. Present in writing the acceptance of the application for the position
6. At least one of them must be an active athlete.
7. Not be serving a sanction in any sports entity.

ARTICLE 36. - Powers of the Comptroller Council:

1. Exercise control of the administration of financial resources by the Board of Directors of FEVEDA.
2. Make observations and make recommendations on administrative management
3. Follow up on the recommendations, on administrative matters, made to the Board of Directors of FEVEDA
4. Request from the Board of Directors of FEVEDA, any information necessary for the compliance with its control and surveillance activities.
5. Request quarterly reports from the Board of Directors of FEVEDA, on the Management and financial situation of the Federation.
6. Present a quarterly report on their actions, to the affiliated Associations and solvents with FEVEDA
7. Present a report on the activities carried out before the General Assembly Annual ordinary and issue an opinion on the administrative management of the Board of Directors and FEVEDA's financial statements
8. Any other attribution assigned by the Assembly on administrative aspects General.

TITLE III OF THE PROVISIONAL AUTHORITY

ARTICLE 37: The Extraordinary Assembly called for this purpose will designate a Provisional Authority, which will be called the Reorganizing Commission, in the following cases:

1. If the Sports entity were headless, in more than half of the members of the Board of Directors, the Honor Council and the Controller Council.
2. If the Entity had not carried out, within the period of six (6) months any activity to Nacional level.
3. If the period of 4 years of the management bodies has expired, the electoral process in the terms established in these Statutes.
4. When seventy-five percent (75%) of the quorum of the General Assembly Print the Management Report and the Balance of Results presented by the Board Directive.

SECTION 38: The Reorganizing Commission will be made up of three (3) member's principals and one (1) Alternate, who will perform their duties for a period not will exceed ninety (90) continuous days, counted from the date of its designation. The members of the Reorganizing Commission may not make up the list of candidates in the election process that is called, for none of the body's board of Feveda except for the assembly.

PARAGRAPH FIRST: The Reorganization Commission shall have the following powers among its powers:

1. Reorganize and conduct the destiny of the entity in accordance with the Statutes and regulations in the period in which it corresponds to act, as well as promoting the practice of sport entrusted to its administration.
2. To summon Elections of the Board of Directors and the Council of honor of the respective entity, within a period of no more than thirty (30) continuous days from the date of date of appointment.
3. Attend the ordinary or extraordinary Assemblies of the Venezuelan Olympic Committee.
4. Administratively manage the entity.
5. Present an accounting and management report on their performance.

TITLE IV THE ELECTORAL REGIME CHAPTER I THE ELECTORAL PROCESS OF FEVEDA

ARTICLE 39: The FEVEDA Electoral process must be announced by convocation to the interested parties at least fifteen (15) business days in advance of the dataset for the Election, through Personal Notification addressed to the representative legal entity of the entity, by certified mail with acknowledgment of receipt, via email or by fax or by publication on a poster, in a national newspaper. In case that after (15) days of expiration of the period of the Board of Directors, without has called for elections, at least one third (1/3) of the members Assembly, they must make the Call.

ARTICLE 40: The Electoral Commission must be elected by a General Assembly Extraordinary of Delegates, convened according to the formalities of the previous article, at least fifteen (15) continuous days prior to the Election date. Said Commission shall be made up of three (3) Principal Members and one (1) alternate, elected from the bosom of this assembly and will take possession immediately at the time of your choice.

ARTICLE 41: The Electoral Commission will have the following powers:

1. To dictate the Electoral Regulations and its Operating Rules, including the Election Schedule.
2. Comply with and enforce the Organic Law of Sports, Physical Activity and Education Physics and its Partial Regulation No. 1, the Statute and Regulations of FEVEDA, in what refers to Electoral Processes.
3. Preside over, supervise, coordinate, direct and evaluate the Electoral Process.
4. Receive submitted listings.
5. Prepare in advance the necessary material for the Voting and Scrutinizes.
6. Resolve the queries, claims and challenges that occur in the process Electoral.
7. Decide on participation in the process of the listings presented. Assigning the corresponding number according to the order of its presentation.
8. Participate in writing to the representative of each rejected list, the reasons that substantiate such decision, within a period of no more than forty-eight (48) hours counted from the presentation of the application.
9. Keep a record and File of the collections presented during the Electoral Process.
10. Ask the delegates present at the General Election Assembly to give their accreditations, review them and verify the regulatory quorum.
11. Carry out the electoral computations and proclaim the elected candidates for the Board Board of Directors and the Council of Honor, in a public event attended by all participants in the process.
12. Submit a report on its management to the new Board of Directors, within three (3) days following the election.

CHAPTER II ON PARTICIPATION IN THE ELECTORAL PROCESS

ARTICLE 42: The list of postulated applicants will be registered before the Commission Electoral, by writing in original and copy, with at least eight (8) days continuous advance, to the date of the act of election of Authorities, in the offices authorized by the Electoral Commission. The list of Candidates for both the Board of Directors of FEVEDA, the Honor Council and the Controller Council must bewitch:

1. The written nomination of at least one third (1/3) of the delegates to the Assembly. The nominations of the delegates of the athletes, coaches or coaches and judges must be accompanied by their respective credentials issued by the respective commissions. In the case of Applications from affiliated Associations must include a copy of the inscription in the National Registry of Sport, Physical Activity and Physical Education that has a minimum validity of six (6) months, accompany your proof of affiliation to FEVEDA and having had proven constant and systematic activity, for at least, in the last six (6) months prior to the electoral process.
2. Brief sports curricular review of each of the postulates.
3. The acceptance in writing and individually of each one of the postulates.
4. Proof of having made the sworn declaration of assets according to the tax system and the LODAFEF.
5. The work program of the list that is submitted.
6. The name and acceptance of the representative of the list that is applied.

SOLE PARAGRAPH: No other requirement may be incorporated into the Electoral Regulations.

FIRST PARAGRAPH: The Electoral Commission will certify the receipt of the lists of candidates presented and their attached requirements.

SECOND PARAGRAPH: Candidates may be replaced postulates in number not greater than one third (1/3) and in case of death, interdiction, disqualification or resignation, provided that the aforementioned Commission, the participation corresponding to at least seventy-two (72) hours before the celebration of the Electoral Assembly.

ARTICLE 43: You may not be nominated for executive positions, or for the Council of Honor nor for the Controlling Council of FEVEDA:

1. Those who are subject to a sports disciplinary sanction that involves measures suspension, dismissal or expulsion from any sport.
2. The members of Electoral Commissions.
3. Those who have integrated Boards of Directors in Sports Entities that do not have presented to the IND, Decentralized Sports Entities and to the General Assembly of the Federation, the Reports of its Economic Management and rendering of accounts corresponding to the civil and fiscal years of the prior to the election. Likewise, those former managers who have not done delivery to the FEVEDA authorities, in due course, of the goods and assets property of this, that have been in any way in its custody irresponsibility.
4. Active athletes except for the Controlling Council and minors. I know exempts Master Athletes from this condition according to the Regulations of the International Swimming Federation.

ARTICLE 44: The Call for the electoral process and for the assembly that the electoral commission will be elected by the current Board of Directors of FEVEDA. In case of acefalia of more than half of the members of the Board of Directors, the call must be carried out by the reorganizing commission or for more than fifty percent one hundred (50%) of the members of the assembly.

ARTICLE 45: Associations will have the right to exercise one vote at Assemblies General of Elections, as long as they are included in the electoral roll of Associations with voting rights, which for this purpose must be prepared with advance notice by the Electoral Commission, which will include only Associations, which have at least six (6) months in advance, affiliated to FEVEDA, with activity constant and systematic and solvent for the moment of the electoral process.

FIRST PARAGRAPH: Each delegate shall exercise the right to vote, who shall present your credential previously signed by the President and Secretary General of the Association it represents, endorsed with the seal of the respective entity together with the delivery of the proof of being registered in the National Sports Registry, Physical Activity and Physical Education; except for the President of the association who You will not be obliged to present a credential. The delegates of the athletes, coaches and judges or judges must present the credentials signed by the President and the Secretary General of the respective committees and the minutes of the assembly where they were democratically elected for this purpose.

SECOND PARAGRAPH: The vote will be direct, secret, highly personal and not delegable.

ARTICLE 46: They will not be able to exercise the right to vote in the Assemblies and therefore exempt those responsible for conducting electoral processes from incurring violation of the organic law of sport, physical activity and physical education and its regulations:

1. The representatives of those Associations who's Boards of Directors have the expired exercise period.
2. The delegates of the Associations that are not registered in the National Registry of Sport, Physical Activity and Physical Education and have not had activity verified at least six (6) months prior to the date of the election assembly, that have their terms expired or that are administered by reorganizing commissions or provisional authorities.
3. The delegates of the athletes, coaches and judges or judges who have not been democratically elected within their commissions.
4. The delegates of the State Commissions who have not constituted and protocolized its articles of incorporation and Statute, in accordance with established in the Organic Law of Sport, Physical Activity and Physical Education and its Regulations and Statute of FEVEDA.
5. The delegates who are serving disciplinary sanctions.
6. Delegates whose credentials are not signed by the President and the General Director of its management body.
7. The delegates who have not sent to the Electoral Commission, copies of the proceeds of the electoral processes where they were elected.
8. The delegates who have pending accounts public funds received from national, state or municipal organizations.
9. The delegates or delegates, minors.

ARTICLE 47: The winning list will be the one that has obtained the simple majority of the valid structured votes, who will take possession of their positions immediately after being proclaimed and sworn in by the Electoral Commission, in the same Election Assembly.

ARTICLE 48: Any member of the lists of candidates or active elector, may challenge before the Electoral Commission, the electoral results, based on vices or statutory violations and the Electoral Regulations, as well such as the Sports Law and its Regulation N°1. Said challenge will be made by written immediately, once the act of proclamation and swearing inland will be formalized within the following five (5) consecutive days, in which express the reasons of fact and law that support it, accompanying it of the corresponding tests. The Electoral Commission will decide within the forty-eight (48) hours after the presentation of the challenge and the decision, the interested parties will be notified as soon as possible. This decision it will be final.

ARTICLE 49: The Electoral Commission may notify the institute in advance National Sports, the realization of the Assembly.

TITLE VOF ASSOCIATIONS, LEAGUES AND CLUBSCHAPTER IOF YOUR MEMBERSHIP AND RECOGNITION

ARTICLE 50. - The Water Sports Associations of each state will be constituted with at least 10 clubs in each state of the Republic and in the Capital district. Only one (1) Association will be recognized for each State. For obtain affiliation to FEVEDA and recognition and registration before the Institute National Sports Association, every Association must formulate the request in writing respective. To join FEVEDA it is necessary to send a request to the Board of Directors, accompanying her by:

1. Copy of the Association's constitution act, in which it must be recorded; the list of the clubs that have constituted it, the Board of Directors, the Council of Honor and the Controlling Council elected in accordance with the provisions of their respective Statute and regulations, the Law of Sport, Physical Activity and Physical Education and its Partial Regulation N1.
2. Nominee of the Athletes, with their national records, coaches and judges, judges and referees.
3. Membership fee whose amount will be decided by the Board of Directors of FEVEDA.
4. Collection of the electoral process, carried out as established by its Statutes.
5. Present the collections that demonstrate sports and systematic activity during the last six (6) months, active athletes and their participation in events endorsed by the Association or FEVEDA of a state, regional or national character.
6. Present a copy of the Certificate of the National Registry of Sports, Physical Activity and Physical Education run by the National Sports Institute.
7. Submit a copy of the sworn statement of assets by the members of the Board of Directors, Honor Council and Comptroller Council.
8. Present the conformation of their assemblies according to what is stipulated by law and its regulations and the FEVEDA Statutes.

PARAGRAPH ONE: Exceptionally, associations of Water Sports, when requested in a motivated manner according to the nature of its entity, before the National Institute of Sports with three (3) clubs in a period of four (4) years.

SECOND PARAGRAPH: The FEVEDA Board of Directors may organize Leagues by specialty to organize competitions at the national level.

THIRD PARAGRAPH: You may not deny a club or league, membership in association nor is it to the Federation, if the interested parties had complied with the provided for in the Sports Law and its Regulations and these Statutes. Affiliation it must be carried out within the term of fifteen (15) days following the corresponding request.

FOURTH PARAGRAPH: When an Association flagrantly violates the statutory and / or regulatory legal provisions of FEVEDA, or found incomplete inactivity due to manifest guilt of the members of its Board Board of Directors, FEVEDA, by agreement of its Board of Directors and having seen the respective report Decree their intervention and call a club assembly to designate the Respective Reorganizing Commission, in accordance with the provisions of these Statutes.

ARTICLE 51.- The Board of Directors of FEVEDA has the power to admit or not the requests that are presented in accordance with the provisions of the preceding Article and in accordance with the provisions of the Law of Sports, Physical Activity and Education Physics, its Regulations, the Statute and Regulations of the Federation.

ARTICLE 52. - All Associations affiliated to FEVEDA maintain their autonomy in directive and administrative order, taking these Statutes and their Regulations for the elaboration of their own, obliging themselves to abide by and apply the substantive rules and adjectives emanating from FEVEDA. All Associations must notify in writing, with mandatory character, the Board of Directors of FEVEDA , the celebration of the Assemblies in which the elections to choose its Board of Directors and Council of Honor, with at least fifteen (15) days prior to the holding of said Assembly. Board FEVEDA Board may designate one of its members to assist in quality of supervisor to the electoral processes of the Associations.

SOLE PARAGRAPH: Associations that do not meet the requirements indicated in this article, they will not obtain the affiliation from FEVEDA, nor will they be able to participate in the annual schedule.

ARTICLE 53.- Associations are obliged to:1. Present in the month of February of each year, a summary of the activities made in the previous year.2. Submit the result of the competitions carried out in your jurisdiction including names, number of participants and general and individual classification, in term no more than fifteen (15) consecutive days after the event ends.3. Operate with a minimum of ten (10) clubs and provisionally with only three (3) clubs, for a period of no more than four (4) years, without extension, when the prevailing conditions in its territorial scope and characteristics of the sport, as justify, and prior authorization from the National Institute of Sports.4. Organize leagues if necessary for the organization of competitions municipal or special.5. Include in its Statutes and Regulations, the conformation and representation of the specialties with competence in organizing and obtaining resources to said specialties, without prejudice to the knowledge, participation and authorization of the Board of Directors of the Association.

ARTICLE 54. - The affiliation of an Association is lost:

1. by dissolution of the same.
2. By decision of the Assembly or the Board of Directors as a consequence of the flagrant and repeated violation of these Statutes and their Regulations or for contempt of the agreements and resolutions of the same Assembly roof the Board of Directors, having to be duly motivated and notified to the interested parties for the purposes of their corresponding discharges.
3. Due to inactivity factions for a period of six (6) months.

ARTICLE 55. - The Leagues or Clubs affiliated or for affiliating to the Associations of each state and the Capital District, will be governed by their own Statutes and regulations, taking The Statute and Regulations of FEVEDA and its affiliated Associations as guide for making yours. Being obliged to abide at all times the statutory provisions of its affiliation entities. The clubs, whose membership comes from social entities, they must adhere strictly to the rules established in the Statute and Regulations of each Association and FEVEDA, especially with regard to the election of its authorities, Constitutive Act, Statute and registration thereof. When the Board of Directors of the Social Club refuses for the Aquatic Sports club to obtain legal status in accordance with the Venezuelan Civil Code and the National Registry of Sports, Physical Activity and Physical Education, the Board of Directors of each Association, through an agreement, will allow the participation of said club in the official competitions scheduled bay period of no more than two (2) years, a term which, upon expiration, will force the club to complete the corresponding registration without delay, under penalty of your disaffiliation.

SINGLE PARAGRAPH: The Board of Directors of Master Clubs maybe made up of Active Athletes and said clubs must designate their delegates for Assemblies and competitions.

TITLE VOF THE DISCIPLINARY REGIMECHAPTER IOF THE SPORTS FOULS AND THEIR SANCTIONS

ARTICLE 56: Sports fouls will be sanctioned, in accordance with the measures provided in the disciplinary regime, established in this title. All Natural or legal person affiliated to FEVEDA will be governed by this Regime.

ARTICLE 57 : Sports fouls will be sanctioned by the Honor Council, who has the power to take disciplinary measures on athletes, coaches and coaches, judges and judges, parents and representatives and sports leaders to national, state and municipal level according to its severity with measures of: warning, suspension and expulsion. For the application of these sanctions of requires hearing the accused, the investigation of the file and awaiting the due proportionality between the offense in question and the application of the respective sanction. No one may be sanctioned for life or indefinitely. All this saving always the procedure contemplated in the Organic Law of Procedures Administrative.

ARTICLE 58 : When the Board of Directors of FEVEDA , one of its Associations or delegates of national teams are aware of fouls, committed by person obliged to comply with the law and its regulations, the Statute and Regulations of FEVEDA and the FINA rules , you must immediately prepare a report and give it to meet the Board of Directors of FEVEDA for the instruction of the corresponding file, hear the interested party for the referral of the file to the Rabbit of Honor, who will decide in accordance with the Disciplinary Regime provided for in this Statute.

ARTICLE 59 : When a file is opened for the investigation of a committed offense, will inform you of the opening of the procedure and the interested party will be notified by office, to your address of residence, residence or office or headquarters of the Association, by email with acknowledgment of receipt or through a poster that will be published in newspaper of local or national circulation, as the case may be; citing him for meeting to be held within ten (10) following business days, from receipt of the notification, in order to present their evidence and state their reasons, in accordance with article 48 of the Organic Law of Administrative Procedures.

ARTICLE 60: Those who incur in the following offenses will be sanctioned according to its severity, in accordance with this article:

1. Whoever provides false information when preparing their national file, will have a suspension from six (6) to eighteen (18) months. In case of recidivism, two (2) will be applied years of suspension.
2. Athletes booked who participate in unauthorized competitions, without permission of your Association or FEVEDA, it will be suspended for up to six (6) months. In case if they repeat offenses, the sanction will be increased for the same time.
3. Whoever commits acts against morality and good customs, in accommodation of athletes or forming part of the preselection's or selections, will be separated from immediately of the same and will apply suspension up to two (2) years.
4. Whoever commits acts of indiscipline in competitions, altering or obstructing the normal development of them, will be suspended from six (6) to eighteen (18) months.
5. Athletes who sign a national file, without the consent of the Association to who were affiliated, will be suspended for up to six (6) months. In case of recidivism will double the sanction.
6. Whoever verbally attacks a Sports authority or a fellow Athlete: It will be suspended for up to six (6) months? In case of physical assault directly or by third parties it will be suspended for up to four (4) years. In case of recidivism will double the penalty.
7. The leader who by fraudulent means, altering data, trademarks or records, enter an athlete from an association in regional or national competitions, it will be suspended for one year.
8. The leaders, referee coaches, athletes, parents and representatives and others participants of a National competition, what to drink liquor during the hours of tests will be suspended for up to one (1) year. In case of recurrence, the pain.
9. whoever by negligence does not register a club or an association in the Registry National Sports, Physical Activity and Physical Education and this loses its recognition will be suspended for a period of 4 years.
10. Whoever violates the Sports Law and its Partial Regulation No. 1, this Statute and the FEVEDA Regulations, issued by the Board of Directors and / or by the assembly, will be sanctioned for up to one (1) year.
1. Penalties for adverse analytical samples found on an athlete both In competitions as outside them, they will be applied in accordance with the provisions of the FINA competition rules.
2. When the behavior of the managers or any member of the delegation of Venezuela abroad, is subsumed in acts of indiscipline, immoral or misdemeanors ethical issues, a penalty of up to two (2) years of suspension will be applied.
3. The FEVEDA Honor Council has the power to admonish any of its affiliates for acts that contravene this ARTICLE that is considered as small fault
4. Any person affiliated with FEVEDA may be expelled from delegations national authorities by the competent authorities and confirmed by the Council of Honor, from concentrations or camps, competitions or any other activity for committing serious offenses that violate this Statute and the legal system Venezuelan
5. When members of FEVEDA commit any other act that injures the sports discipline, will be sanctioned from six (6) months to one (1) year.

FIRST PARAGRAPH: The suspension referred to in this article includes the disqualification for the performance of any activity within organized sport. No one may be punished for life or indefinitely. Double is prohibited penalty for the same acts. Underage athletes may not be penalized whose infractions will be treated with educational measures and by guarantee signed by parents or guardians. The sanctioned persons may go to the Sports Justice Commission if the sanction applied was for serious causes or very serious.

SECOND PARAGRAPH. When the decision of the FEVEDA Council of Honor, whether acting in the first instance, said decision will be final. The sanctioned may Appeal before the Sports Justice Commission, if the sanction applied icon serious or very serious offenses. From the decision of the aforementioned Council, Appeal by the sanctioned before the bodies of the contentious jurisdiction administrative, in accordance with the provisions of the Organic Law of Sports, Physical Activity and Physical Education.

CHAPTER IIDISCIPLINARY ACTIONS FOR DOPING INFRACTIONS

ARTICLE 61: When a doping offense has been committed, the procedure contemplated in the FINA competition rules in concordance with the rules of the WADA and the rules of the National Antidumping of Venezuela under the following procedure:

1° In the case of the Board of Directors receive notification of an adverse result analytical by any national or international body immediately The athlete will be notified of the prohibited substance found and the date of its finding.

2. - The athlete must immediately explain the reasons why it was The prohibited substance has been found or you may request the opening of the B sample under your own risk and financing.

3. - The Board of Directors of FEVEDA may by mandate of FINA suspend provisionally to the athlete of all activities.

4. - The Board of Directors will forward the case file to the FEVEDA honor council.

5. - All athletes have the right to a Hearing as a guarantee of the Right to Defense and Due Process before the Council of Honor of FEVEDA , before the make a decision on its suspension, providing all the elements and evidence that consider appropriate. The athlete may be represented by attorneys with power authenticated. When the athlete is notified, either by correspondence or by mail electronic receipt acknowledgment presumed to have been a violation of Doping, you will also be presented with a notice informing you of your right to hearing, along with the charges against him. If the athlete does not present his written discharge or does not appear to the hearing in three (3) different notices, during the thirty (30) days after receiving the notification, it will be considered that you have waived your right to a hearing.

6. - If it is discovered that an athlete has committed a doping offense and this is confirmed after a Hearing or the Athlete waives his right to it, he is declare disabled. Furthermore, if the doping control was carried out during competition, and it is positive, will be disqualified from it, having the obligation to abide by and accept the decision and the result will be modified accordingly. His Disqualification will begin on the date the control sample was collected.

7. - In general, FEVEDA will apply the procedure established in the rules of competitions in force at the time of the offense.

ARTICLE 62: The athlete sanctioned for doping will be obliged to submit too periodically to permanent controls and FEVEDA is obliged to report on the sanctions against FINA and the National Sports Institute.

ARTICLE 63: For the purposes of this Chapter, doping offenses are considered following:

1. The discovery of a prohibited substance, in body tissues or fluids of the athlete.
2. The use or exploitation of prohibited techniques.
3. The confession of having used or exploited a prohibited substance or a prohibited technique.
4. Failure or refusal by the athlete to submit to a test of doping.
5. Failure or refusal of an athlete to provide a blood or blood sample urine.
6. Helping or inciting others to use a prohibited substance or prohibited technique or the admit to helping or inciting others
7. The trade, transport, traffic, distribution, sale or consumption of any prohibited substance.
8. Failure to inform about their place of stay when required by FEVEDA and by FINA.

ARTICLE 64: Related offenses:

- 1 An athlete who stops, or refuses to undergo a doping control after has been required to do so by the responsible officer, commits adopting offense and you will be penalized according to FINA rules.
- 2° an athlete may only renounce to provide a blood sample in those circumstances in which mandatory procedures and safeguards established in the "Guidelines for the Doping Control Procedure" are not observed.
- 3° Any person who helps or incites others, or acknowledges having incited or helped others to use prohibited substances or prohibited techniques, you have committed adopting offense and will be penalized, in accordance with FINA rules . If the person concerned is not an athlete, then FEVEDA may, at its discretion, impose the appropriate sanction.
- 4° any person who trades, traffics, distributes or sells any substance prohibited other than through a recognized profession or trade that enables to this end, he will also have committed a Doping offense, in accordance with this Statute and will be subject to the pertinent sanctions provided for in this Chapter.

ARTICLE 65. - An athlete may request the FINA Anti-Doping Commission, the granting an authorization that allows you to ingest a substance prohibited under the Regulations. Such authorization will be fully granted in those cases of clear and urgent clinical need. Details for the procedure of such request are can be found in the "Guidelines for the Doping Control Procedure" of the FINA Manual.

ARTICLE 66: FEVEDA will appoint a Doping Commission upon recommendation of the Medical Committee. The former will inform the Board of Directors and the Medical Committee, to which will consult when necessary. Its function will be to advise FEVEDA in all matters relating to doping in general, as well as specific matters cited in the Statutes. It will be made up of a maximum of five (5) members who they will meet or get in touch regularly and without formalities.

ARTICLE 67: The Doping Commission will establish the administrative and procedure for carrying out doping controls. These guidelines they will bear the name "Guidelines for the Doping Control Procedure". They or any proposed modification thereof must be approved by the Board of Directors of FEVEDA and will enter into force three (3) months after the date of your approval.

ARTICLE 68: One or more breaches of the procedures established in the FINA "Guidelines for the Doping Control Procedure" will not invalidate the discovery of a prohibited substance present in a sample or the use of prohibited technique, provided the breach is not of such a nature that may cast doubt on the reliability of such a finding.

ARTICLE 69: FINA may delegate the sampling to FEVEDA, Agency Government or any third party deemed appropriate

TITUTE VIOF THE FEVEDA HERITAGECHAPTER

I.-OF THE ASSETS, REGISTRATIONS, CONTRIBUTIONS AND CONTRIBUTIONS

ARTICLE 70. - FEVEDA's assets will be made up of:

1. The movable and immovable property and other stocks of FEVEDA.
2. The fees and other contributions related to the established championships annually from FEVEDA.
3. The contributions made by the State, through its agencies according to the Law of the Sport and its Regulations.
4. Income from the administration of their properties and those you make.
5. Donations and subsidies received from natural or legal persons, whether of public or private character.
6. The income that they could obtain as a result of their activities of self-management.

CHAPTER IIOF THE RESERVATION OF THE NAME, MOTTO, EMBLEM, COMMERCIALIZATION ANDEXCLUSIVITY OF THE COMPETITIONS.A

RTICLE 71.- FEVEDA reserves, exclusively, the use of the name NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP in any of the disciplines or the word with which it is identifies contained in this Statute, the logo, motto or emblems related to it, as well as any other mention or allusion to the identifications mentioned above, without prejudice to any authorizations that under the contract or agreement could be signed with public or private entities interested in the use of as described in this article.

ARTICLE 72 .- FEVEDA any activity involving transmission reserves or sound and / or visual broadcasting of all the activities of the Water Sports that are carried out in the country, both nationally and internationally, if for the latter had the authorization of the International Federation of Amateur Swimming F.INA, as well like all static or dynamic advertising in any of its manifestations, aimed at the dissemination of events that in accordance with the Sports Law, its Regulations, Statutes, Regulations and international standards that correspond.

TITLE VII OF THE DURATION, DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION OF THE ASSETS OF FEVEDA

CHAPTER I ON DURATION

ARTICLE 73. - The duration of the Venezuelan Federation of Aquatic Sports is indefinite. All Associations will endeavor at all times to maintain the institutionalist and majesty of FEVEDA and its directors, for which they will to develop and disseminate the activities of Water Sports.

CHAPTER II OF DISSOLUTION

ARTICLE 74. - The Extraordinary General Assembly called for this purpose may not agree to the dissolution of FEVEDA while there is an Association willing to keep it.

ARTICLE 75.- The Board of Directors of FEVEDA , will watch at all times in reason, scope and consequence, of the purposes and purposes established, that the entities hierarchically inferior affiliates maintain their affiliation in force before it and the Registration with the National Institute of Sports. You must also do it with the affiliation of athletes, technical staff and referees, parents and representatives and Any other people who have obtained FEVEDA membership.

CHAPTER III.-OF THE LIQUIDATION OF FEVEDA ASSETS

ARTICLE 76.- For the purposes and scope of the provisions of Chapter I, Article 6 of today repealed Statute of the Venezuelan Federation of Aquatic Sports, the Extraordinary General Assembly held on 06-12-1996, in the city of Valera, Trujillo State, resolves that all assets, assets and liabilities, property of the cited sports entity, will be legitimately transferred to the Federation (FEVEDA) from the approval of this Statute. Without detriment to the realization of Rigorous inventory and changes of names and signatures in Banking Institutions corresponding.

TITLE IX TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 77.- FEVEDA's fiscal year will begin on January 1 of each year and will culminate on December thirty-first of the same year, with the exception of the year that this Statute and its regulations be formalized before the Real Estate Office Corresponding registration, which will culminate on December thirty-first of the year in course.

ARTICLE 78. - The Board of Directors of FEVEDA, as well as the affiliated Associations must, within FIFTEEN (15) business days, notify of this statutory modification to the National Institute of Sports, also requesting, this body proceeds to register FEVEDA in the National Sports Registry, Physical Activity and Physical Education and its affiliated Associations for their recognition

ARTICLE 79. - This Statute and the General Regulations that complement it, only may be reformed, totally or partially, with the formality that they themselves indicate and with the favorable vote of seventy-five percent (75%), of the delegates present that make up the Assembly that is aware of the modifications, in the following cases:

1. When requested by the Board of Directors of FEVEDA, prior written notification to all delegates, fifteen (15) days prior to the convened Assembly.
2. When requested by, at least, seventy-five percent (75%) of the delegates affiliated and legally in force before the Board of Directors of FEVEDA, with sixty (60) days prior to the Assembly that is called for this purpose.

ARTICLE 80.- These Statutes will be approved in the General Assembly Corresponding extraordinary and will begin its validity from the date that agreed by the Assembly without prejudice to its notarization before the Real Estate Office of Corresponding registry and referral of the same to the National Institute of Sports.

ARTICLE 81.- Anything not provided for in these Statutes will be resolved in accordance with the spirit and purpose of the Sports Law, its Regulations and special laws applicable to the matter, the general principles of law, the resolutions issued for this purpose and the maximums of experience that can be applied. These Statutes were approved in an Extraordinary General Assembly in the city of Caracas, Capital District on the twenty-second day of October of the year two thousand